MAKING WAVES is Making News

Richmond, VA – Libby Brown and her book MAKING WAVES are featured in the March 2007 issue of FiftyPlus Magazine. On the cover and in the center spread, the article by Angela Lehman-Rios highlights Libby's "life as a risk-taker" and the adventure of writing about her life's journeys. See the article at <http://www.fiftyplusrichmond.com>.

MAKING WAVES was the #2 best seller at Barnes & Noble Libbie Place the week of 2/26/07. (See "What Richmond's Reading" at www.Richmond.com.)
"Best showing ever of a privately published book in this store," store manager Paula Gear.

The University of Virginia Darden School of Business has ordered 150 copies of MAKING WAVES for their MBA curriculum. Of interest to the school is the juxtaposition of the vast differences that the same entrepreneur faced in two different circumstances, why she continued to choose risk even after risk "showed her its backside," and how she managed to balance her life during two such different scenarios.

Libby's previous speaking appearances and book signings at Fountain Bookstore and Barnes & Noble Libbie Place the week of February 12 were well attended by enthusiastic readers.
A book signing is scheduled at Book People, 536 Granite Ave. on Friday, March 16 from 5:00 - 7:00 p.m.

READERS RAVE:

"Your book has been an inspiration to me. I finished reading it while my two toddlers took naps and I sauteed vegetables again for my family's evening meal. I shall start today looking for small places to 'make waves.' Thank you for giving me courage."
— from Richmond, VA

"With MAKING WAVES you have made the leap from seriously successful entrepreneur and adventurer to seriously accomplished author. With its concise chapters, this book reads like a fast-paced novel but the compelling color photography says 'this is for real.' Thanks for sharing your wild ride!"
— from Jackson WY

"Thank you for writing MAKING WAVES. You are an outstanding example of what a wonderful life can be had if we just take that leap of faith."
— from Charlotte NC

"I just finished [MAKING WAVES] and enjoyed every page. I could not put it down. Following your path made me really look at my path and purpose. I don't know what the future holds, but I will say that your story really enticed me and got my mind swirling around many possibilities."
— from Denver CO
